The Valuable Plantation, known as Castle

Haynes, lying nine miles from Wilmington, on the North East Branch of Cape Fear River, adjacent to the lands of NATH. It contains about 1600 acres, 300 of which are now ready for the plough, and 200 more having been once cleared, could be easily made so. It is bounded by the county road, the river and Prince George's Creek, so that the whole tract may be enclosed by a small quantity of fencing, affording an excellent range for hogs and cattle. A large portion of the land has a growth of oak and hickory, and would be very productive if cleared. There are landings on the creek and increased and high creek and increased and increased and increased and increased and increased. the creek and river, and the Railroad passes by the Plantation, affording every facility for getting wood and produce to market. It is well supplied with buildings requisite for the cultivation of a farm, and there is no doubt that an industrious and intelligent planter could make it one of the most val-uable places on the river. The terms of sale will be liberal. For further particulars enquire of Mr. George Burgwin, at the Hermitage, or of the subscriber in Wilmington.
